ANQUET MAPS

20% off Anquet Maps for Open24 Competitors

The Open24 adventure race is a massive orienteering score event, competitors have to visit as many of the pre plotted points as they can in the 24hours. The location of these points is released on the Wednesday before the event as OS grid references. The 2005 event had over 150 points to mark on to maps which took some competitors over 4hrs to complete. If you were to purchase the Anquet Mapping software Open Adventure can freely supply the Anquet waypoint files which contains all of the controls used on the Open24, which when downloaded, eliminates the process of hand marking the maps and ensuring accuracy.

The offer available to only Open24 competitors is 20% off the recommended retail price (rrp) for the Yorkshire Dales 1:25000 map (rrp £80) and the 1:50000 map for the North of England (rrp £29). Competitors will find both scales of use during the event, some of the foot navigation benefiting the use of a 1:25000 map whereas the MTBing would benefit from the use of a 1:50000 map.

Competitors should be aware that Anquet maps can only print up to A4. Whilst it can not be confirmed at this stage (Dec 05) it is expected that competitors may travel for a short while off the 1:25000 coverage provided by Anquet Yorkshire Dales.
